- 2 It makes the wounded spirit whole, And calms the troubled breast; 'Tis Manna to the hungry soul, And to the weary Rest..
- 3 Dear Name! the Rock on which I build. My Shield and Hiding-place, My never-failing Treasury, filled With boundless stores of grace;
- 4 Jesus, my Shepherd, Brother, Friend, My Prophet, Priest, and King, My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End, Accept the praise I bring.
- 5 Weak is the effort of my heart, And cold my warmest thought; But when I see Thee as Thou art, I'll praise Thee as I ought.

6 Till then I would Thy love proclaim With every fleeting breath; And may the music of Thy Name Refresh my soul in death.

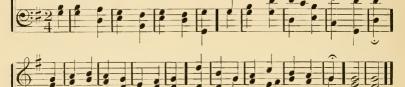

Rev. John Newton.

Genevan Psalter.

I All peo - ple that on earth do dwell, Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;

Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell, Come ye before Him and rejoice. Amen.

2 The Lord ye know is God indeed; Without our aid he did us make; We are His folk, He doth us feed;

And for His sheep he doth us take.

3 O enter then His gates with praise, Approach with joy His courts unto; Praise, laud, and bless His Name always, For it is seemly so to do.

- 4 For why? the Lord our God is good, His mercy is for ever sure;
- His truth at all times firmly stood,
  And shall from age to age endure.

  Rev. William Kethe.

I From all that dwell below the skies, Let the Creator's praise arise: Let the Redeemer's Name be sung, Through every land, by every tongue.

2 Eternal are Thy mercies, Lord! Eternal truth attends Thy Word: Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore, Till suns shall rise and set no more.

DOXOLOGY

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below;

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host:

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Bishop Thomas Ken

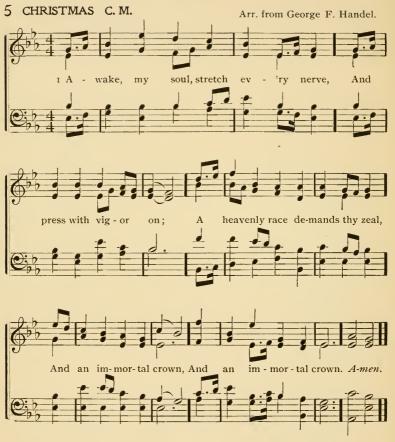

2 Holy, Holy, Holy! All the saints adore Thee, Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea; Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee, Who wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

3 Holy, Holy, Holy! Though the darkness hide Thee, Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see, Only Thou art holy; there is none beside Thee Perfect in power, in love, and purity.

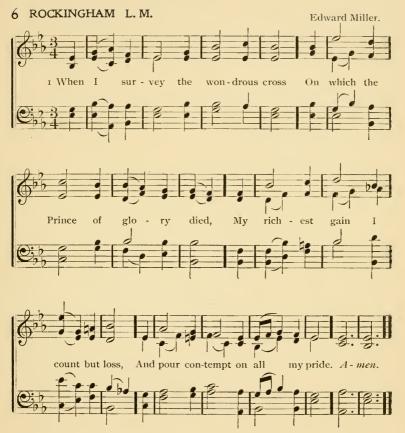

4 Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty! All Thy works shall praise Thy Name, in earth and sky and sea; Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and Mighty! God in Three Persons, blessèd Trinity!

Bishop Reginald Heber.

- ? A cloud of witnesses around Hold thee in full survey: Forget the steps already trod, And onward urge thy way.
- 3 'Tis God's all-animating voice That calls thee from on high;
- 'Tis His own hand presents the prize To thine aspiring eye:
- 4 That prize with peerless glories bright, Which shall new lustre boast, [gems When victors' wreaths and monarchs Shall blend in common dust.
- 5 Blest Saviour, introduced by Thee, Have I my race begun;
- And, crowned with victory, at Thy feet I'll lay my honors down.

Rev. Philip Doddridge.

- 2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, Save in the death of Christ my God: All the vain things that charm me most, I sacrifice them to His blood.
- 3 See,from His head, His hands, His feet, Sorrow and love flow mingled down: Did e'er such love and sorrow meet, Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
- 4 Were the whole realm of nature mine, That were a present far too small; Love so amazing, so Divine, Demands my soul, my life, my all.

Rev. Isaac Watts.

Rev. Timothy R. Matthews.

I O Mas-ter, let me walk with Thee In low-ly paths of ser-vice free;

Tell me Thy secret; help me bear The strain of toil, the fret of care. Amen.

2 Help me the slow of heart to move By some clear winning word of love; Teach me the wayward feet to stay, And guide them in the homeward way. 3 Teach me Thy patience; still with In closer, dearer company, [Thee In work that keeps faith sweet and strong,

In trust that triumphs over wrong;

4 In hope that sends a shining ray Far down the future's broadening way; In peace that only Thou canst give, With Thee, O Master, let me live.

Rev. Washington Gladden.

- 2 What rush of alleluias Fills all the earth and sky! What ringing of a thousand harps
- Bespeaks the triumph nigh!
  O day, for which creation
  And all its tribes were made;
- O joy, for all its former woes A thousand fold repaid!
- 3 O then what raptured greetings On Canaan's happy shore; What knitting severed friendships up, Where partings are no more!

- Then eyes with joy shall sparkle That brimmed with tears of late; Orphans no longer fatherless,
- Orphans no longer fatherless, Nor widows desolate.
- 4 Bring near Thy great salvation, Thou Lamb for sinners slain;

Fill up the roll of Thine elect,
Then take Thy power, and reign:

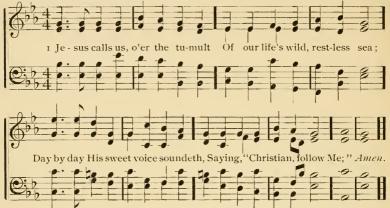

Appear, Desire of nations,
Thine exiles long for home:

Show in the heaven Thy promised sign; Thou Prince and Saviour, come.

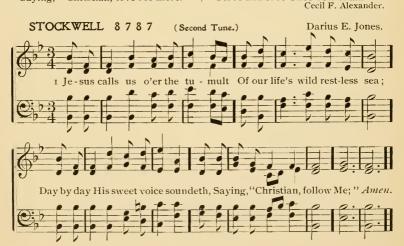

Dean Alford.

Albert Lowe.

- 2 As, of old, apostles heard it By the Galilean lake, Turned from home and toil and kindred,
- Turned from home and toil and kindred Leaving all for His dear sake.
- 3 Jesus calls us from the worship Of the vain world's golden store, From each idol that would keep us, Saying, "Christian, love Me more."
- 4 In our joys and in our sorrows, Days of toil and hours of ease, Still he calls, in cares and pleasures, "Christian, love Me more than these."
- 5 Jesus calls us: by Thy mercies, Saviour, may we hear Thy call, Give our hearts to Thy obedience, Serve and love Thee best of all.

2 Come, Thou Incarnate Word,Gird on Thy mighty sword,Our prayer attend:Come, and Thy people bless,And give Thy word success;

Spirit of holiness,

On us descend.

3 Come, Holy Comforter, Thy sacred witness bear In this glad hour: Thou who almighty art, Now rule in every heart, And ne'er from us depart, Spirit of power.

4 To the great One in Three Eternal praises be Hence evermore. His sovereign majesty May we in glory see, And to eternity Love and adore.

- 2 May we Thy bounties thus As stewards true receive, And gladly, as Thou blessest us, To Thee our first-fruits give.
- 3 O hearts are bruised and dead, And homes are bare and cold. And lambs for whom the Shepherd bled

Are straying from the fold.

4 To comfort and to bless, To find a balm for woe,

To tend the lone and fatherless, Is angels' work below.

5 The captive to release, To God the lost to bring,

To teach the way of life and peace,-

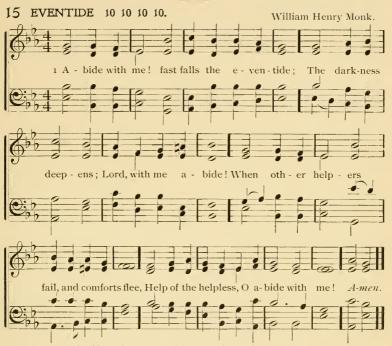

It is a Christ-like thing.

6 And we believe Thy word, Though dim our faith may be, Whate'er for Thine we do, O Lord. We do it unto Thee. Bishop William W. How.

- 2 When our foes are near us, Then Thy word doth cheer us; Word of consolation. Message of salvation.
- 3 When the storms are o'er us, And dark clouds before us, Then its light directeth, And our way protecteth.
- 4 Word of mercy, giving Succor to the living; Word of life, supplying Comfort to the dying!
- 5 O that we, discerning Its most holy learning, Lord, may love and fear Thee, Evermore be near Thee. Rev. Sir Henry W. Baker.

- 2 His sovereign power, without our aid, Made us of clay, and formed us men; And when like wandering sheep we strayed, He brought us to His fold again.
- 3 We are His people, we His care, Our souls, and all our mortal frame: What lasting honors shall we rear, Almighty Maker, to Thy Name?
- 4 We'll crowd Thy gates with thankful songs, High as the heavens our voices raise; And earth, with her ten thousand tongues, Shall fill Thy courts with sounding praise.
- 5 Wide as the world is Thy command,
  Vast as eternity Thy love;
  Firm as a rock Thy truth must stand,
  When rolling years shall cease to move.
  Rev. Isaac Watts

- 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day; Earth's joys grow dim; its glories pass away; Change and decay in all around I see; O Thou, Who changest not, abide with me!
- 3 I need Thy presence every passing hour; What but Thy grace can foil the Tempter's power? Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be? Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me!
- 4 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless; Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness; Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory? I triumph still, if Thou abide with me!
- 5 Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes! Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies! Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee; In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me!

Rev. Henry Francis Lyte.

16 ALL SAINTS NEW

3 A glorious band, the chosen few On whom the Spirit came, Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew,

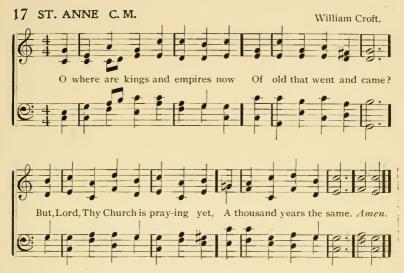

And mocked the cross and flame:

In robes of light arrayed:

They climbed the steep ascent of heaven Through peril, toil, and pain:

O God, to us may grace be given To follow in their train.

Bishop Reginald Heber.

- We mark her goodly battlements, And her foundations strong;
   We hear within the solemn voice Of her unending song.
- 3 For not like kingdoms of the world Thy holy Church, O God;
- Though earthquake shocks are threaten-And tempests are abroad; [ing her,
- 4 Unshaken as eternal hills, Immovable she stands,
- A mountain that shall fill the earth, A house not made by hands. Bishop A. Cleveland Coxe.

- I Am I a soldier of the Cross,A follower of the Lamb?And shall I fear to own His cause,Or blush to speak His Name?
- 2 Must I be carried to the skies On flowery beds of ease? While others fought to win the prize, And sailed through bloody seas?
- 3 Are there no foes for me to face?Must I not stem the flood?Is that vile world a friend to grace,To help me on to God?

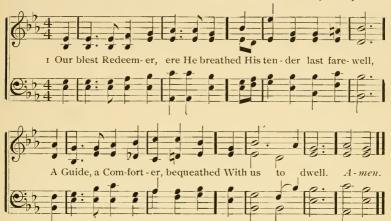

- 4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign; J Increase my courage, Lord!
- I'll bear the toil, endure the pain, Supported by Thy Word.
- 5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war, Shall conquer, though they die;
- They view the triumph from afar, And seize it with their eye.
- 6 When that illustrious Day shall rise, And all Thy armies shine : :
- In robes of victory through the skies, The glory shall be Thine.

Rev. Isaac Watts.

- 2 He came sweet influence to impart, A gracious, willing Guest, While He can find one humble heart Wherein to rest
- 3 And His that gentle voice we hear,
  Soft as the breath of even, [fear,
  That checks each tho't, that calms each
  And speaks of heaven.
- 4 And every virtue we possess, And every victory won,
- And every thought of holiness, Are His alone.
- 5 Spirit of purity and grace, Our weakness, pitying, see:
- O make our hearts Thy dwelling-place. And worthier Thee.

Harriet Auber.

- 2 "Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dismayed; I, I am Thy God, and will still give thee aid; I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand, Upheld by My righteous, omnipotent hand.
- 3 "When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie, My grace, all-sufficient, shall be thy supply; The flame shall not hurt thee; I only design Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine.
- 4 "The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose, I will not, I will not desert to his foes; That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake, I'll never, no, never, no never forsake."

1 Come, dearest Lord, descend and dwell By faith and love in ev-'ry breast;

Then shall we know and taste and feel The joys that cannot be expressed. Amen.

2 Come, fill our hearts with inward strength;

Make our enlargèd souls possess

And learn the height, and breadth, and length

Of Thine unmeasurable grace.

3 Now to the God whose power can do More than our thoughts or wishes know,

Be everlasting honors done
By all the Church, through Christ His Son.

Rev. Isaac Watts.

2 See, the streams of living waters, Springing from eternal Love, Well supply thy sons and daughters, And all fear of want remove: Who can faint, when such a river Ever flows their thirst to assuage; Grace, which, like the Lord the Giver, Never fails from age to age?

3 Round each habitation hovering, See the cloud and fire appear For a glory and a covering, Showing that the Lord is near, Thus deriving from their banner
Light by night, and shade by day,
Safe they feed upon the manna
Which He gives them when they pray.

4 Saviour, if of Zion's city
I, through grace, a member am,
Let the world deride or pity,
I will glory in Thy Name:
Fading is the worldling's pleasure,
All his boasted pomp and show;
Solid joys and lasting treasure
None but Zion's children know.

Rev. John Newton.

- 2 With Thee w .on dawn comes in And calls me back to care, Each day returning to begin With Thee, my God, in prayer.
- 3 With Thee when day is done, And evening calms the mind;
- The setting as the rising sun With Thee my heart would find.
- 4 With Thee, in Thee, by faith Abiding, I would be; By day, by night, in life, in death.
- I would be still with Thee.
  Rev. James D. Burns.
- 2 This is the day of rest: Our failing strength renew; On weary brain and troubled breast Shed Thou Thy freshening dew.
- 3 This is the day of peace:
  Thy peace our spirits fill:
  Bid Thou the blasts of discord cease,
  The waves of strife be still.
- 4 This is the day of prayer: Let earth to heaven draw near: Lift up our hearts to seek Thee there; Come down to meet us here.
- 5 This is the first of days: Send forth Thy quickening breath, And wake dead souls to love and praise. O Vanquisher of death! Rev. John Ellerton.

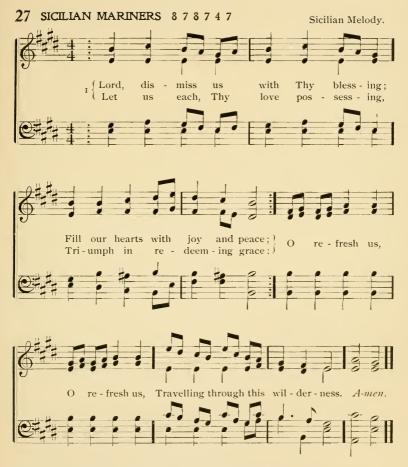

Rev. John B. Dykes.

- 2 Thou didst not spare Thine only Son, But gav'st Him for a world undone, And freely with that Blessed One Thou givest all.
  - 3 Thou giv'st the Spirit's holy dower, Spirit of life and love and power, And dost His sevenfold graces shower Upon us all.
- 4 Whatever, Lord, we lend to thee, Repaid a thousand-fold will be; Then gladly we will give to Thee Who givest all;
- 5 To Thee, from whom we all derive Our life, our gifts, our power to give; O may we ever with Thee live

Who givest all. Bishop Christopher Wordsworth.

2 Thanks we give and adorationFor Thy gospel's joyful sound:May the fruits of Thy salvation

In our hearts and lives abound:
Ever faithful

To the truth may we be found;

3 So that when Thy love shall call Saviour, from the world away, [us, Let no fear of death appal us,

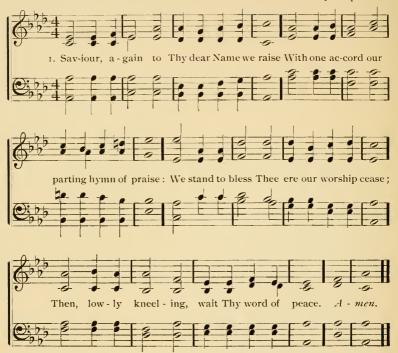

Glad Thy summons to obey:

May we ever

Reign with Thee in endless day.

Edward J. Hopkins.

- 2 Grant us Thy peace upon our homeward way; With Thee began, with Thee shall end the day: Guard Thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame, That in this house have called upon Thy Name.
- 3 Grant us Thy peace, Lord, through the coming night; Turn Thou for us its darkness into light; From harm and danger keep Thy children free, For dark and light are both alike to Thee.
- 4 Grant us Thy peace throughout our earthly life, Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife; Then, when Thy voice shall bid our conflict cease, Call us, O Lord, to Thine eternal peace.

- 2 I ask no dream, no prophet-ecstasies; No sudden rending of the veil of clay; No angel-visitant, no opening skies; But take the dimness of my soul away.
- 3 Hast Thou not bid us love Thee, God and King? All, all Thine own, soul, heart, and strength, and mind; I see Thy cross—there teach my heart to cling: O let me seek Thee, and O let me find.
- 4 Teach me to feel that Thou art always nigh; Teach me the struggles of the soul to bear, To check the rising doubt, the rebel sigh; Teach me the patience of unanswered prayer.

List! as that heathen band joyfully sing,

"Over the ocean wave, O see them come!

2 I wish that His hands had been placed on my head, That His arm had been thrown around me, And that I might have seen His kind look when He said, "Let the little ones come unto Me."

3 Yet still to His footstool in prayer I may go, And ask for a share in His love; And if I thus earnestly seek Him below,

I shall see Him and hear Him above

4 In that beautiful place He has gone to prepare For all who are washed and forgiven;
And many dear children shall be with Him there

And many dear children shall be with Him there, For of such is the kingdom of heaven.

5 But thousands and thousands who wander and fall, Never heard of that heavenly home;

- 2 Bless, O my soul, the Lord thy God, And not forgetful be
- Of all His gracious benefits He hath bestowed on thee.
- 3 All thy iniquities who doth Most graciously forgive: Who thy diseases all and pains Doth heal, and thee relieve.
- 4 Who doth redeem thy life, that thou
  To death mayst not go down,
  Who thee with loving-kindness doth
  And tender mercies crown.

- 5 Who with abundance of good things
  Doth satisfy thy mouth;
- And even as the eagle's age, He hath renewed thy youth.
- 6 For as the heaven in its height
  The earth surmounteth far;
  So great to those that do Him fear

His tender mercies are:

7 As far as east is distant from The west, so far hath He From us removed, in tender love, All our iniquity.

 The wandering and the wavering feet;
 O feed me, Lord, that I may feed

2 A holy war those servants wage; Mysteriously at strife,

The powers of heaven and hell engage For more than death or life.

Ye armies of the living God, His sacramental host,

Where hallowed footsteps never trod Take your appointed post;

3 Though few and small and weak your bands,

Strong in your Captain's strength Go to the conquest of all lands; All must be His at length.

Those spoils at His victorious feet You shall rejoice to lay,

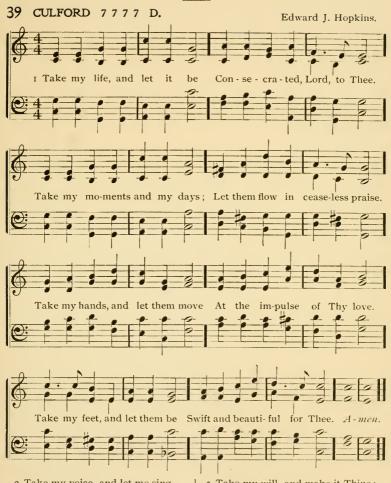

And lay yourselves, as trophies meet, In His great judgment-day.

4 O fear not, faint not, halt not now; In Jesus' Name be strong;

To Him shall all the nations bow, And sing with you this song:

"Uplifted are the gates of brass,

The bars of iron yield;
Behold the King of Glory pass;
The cross hath won the field." James Montgomery.

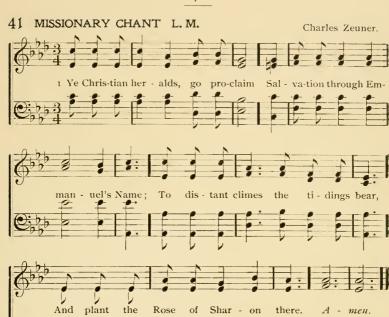

2 Take my voice, and let me sing, Always, only, for my King. Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from Thee. Take my silver and my gold; Not a mite would I withhold. Take my intellect, and use Every power as Thou shalt choose.

3 Take my will, and make it Thine; It shall be no longer mine. Take my heart, it is Thine own; It shall be Thy royal throne. Take my love; my Lord, I pour At Thy feet its treasure-store. Take myself, and I will be Ever, only, all for Thee.

2 Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring
With fervent prayer;
The wayward and the lost,
By restless passions tossed,
Redeemed at countless cost
From dark despair.

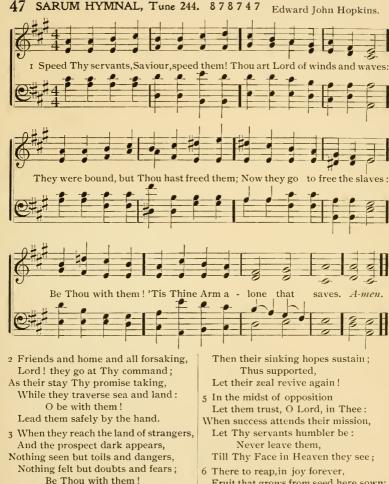

3 Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring
With one accord;
With us the work to share,

With us reproach to dare, With us the cross to bear, For Christ our Lord.

4 Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring

Fruit that grows from seed here sown;
There to be with Him, Who never
Ceases to preserve His own,
And with triumph
Sing a Saviour's grace alone!

- 2 Fling out the banner! angels bend In anxious silence o'er the sign, And vainly seek to comprehend The wonder of the love Divine.
- 3 Fling out the banner! heathen lands Shall see from far the glorious sight, And nations, crowding to be born, Baptize their spirits in its light.
- 4 Fling out the banner! let it float Skyward and seaward, high and wide, Our glory, only in the cross; Our only hope, the Crucified!

- Salvation! O salvation! The joyful sound proclaim, Till each remotest nation Has learned Messiah's Name.
- 4 Waft, waft, ye winds, His story, And you, ye waters, roll, Till, like a sea of glory It spreads from pole to pole; Till o'er our ransomed nature The Lamb for sinners slain, Redeemer, King, Creator, In bliss returns to reign. Bishop Reginald Heber.

His Name, like sweet perfume, shall rise With every morning sacrifice; 3 People and realms of every tongue

Dwell on His love with sweetest song; And infant voices shall proclaim Their early blessings on His Name.

The weary find eternal rest, And all the sons of want are blest.

5 Let every creature rise and bring Peculiar honors to our King, Angels descend with songs again. And earth repeat the loud Amen. Rev. Isaac Watts.

2 Forward, when in childhood Buds the infant mind; All through youth and manhood, Not a thought behind: Speed through realms of nature, Climb the steps of grace; Faint not, till in glory Gleams our Father's Face.

Forward, all the life-time, Climb from height to height: Till the head be hoary, Till the eve be light.

3 Forward, flock of Jesus, Salt of all the earth, Till each yearning purpose Spring to glorious birth: Sick, they ask for healing, Blind, they grope for day;

Pour upon the nations Wisdom's loving ray. Forward, out of error, Leave behind the night: Forward through the darkness. Forward into light!

Hath our God prepared, By the souls that love Him One day to be shared: Eye hath not beheld them, Ear hath never heard: Nor of these hath uttered Thought or speech a word.

4 Glories upon glories

Forward, marching eastward Where the heaven is bright, Till the veil be lifted,

Till our faith be sight.

53 WEBB or AURELIA 7676 D.

1 Stand up, stand up for Jesus, Ye soldiers of the cross; Lift high His royal banner, It must not suffer loss: From victory unto victory His army He shall lead, Till every foe is vanquished. And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up, stand up for Jesus, The trumpet call obey: Forth to the mighty conflict In this His glorious day: Ye that are men now serve Him Against unnumbered foes; Let courage rise with danger, And strength to strength oppose. 3 Stand up, stand up for Jesus, Stand in His strength alone; The arm of flesh will fail you, Ye dare not trust your own: Put on the gospel armor, Each piece put on with prayer; Where duty calls or danger, Be never wanting there.

4 Stand up, stand up for Jesus. The strife will not be long; This day the noise of battle, The next the victor's song: To him that overcometh A crown of life shall be; He with the King of Glory Shall reign eternally. Rev. George Duffield

54 WEBB or AURELIA 7676 D.

I Hail to the Lord's Anointed, Great David's greater Son! Hail, in the time appointed, His reign on earth begun! He comes to break oppression, To set the captive free, To take away transgression, And rule in equity.

2 He shall come down like showers Upon the fruitful earth; And love, joy, hope, like flowers, Spring in His path to birth; Before Him on the mountains Shall peace, the herald, go, And righteousness, in fountains, From hill to valley flow.

3 Kings shall fall down before Him, And gold and incense bring; All nations shall adore Him, His praise all people sing;

For He shall have dominion O'er river, sea, and shore, Far as the eagle's pinion Or dove's light wing can soar.

4 For Him shall prayer unceasing And daily vows ascend; His kingdom still increasing, A kingdom without end: The mountain dews shall nourish A seed in weakness sown, Whose fruit shall spread and flourish, And shake like Lebanon.

He on His throne shall rest. From age to age more glorious, All blessing and all-blest: The tide of time shall never His covenant remove, His Name shall stand for ever,-That Name to us is Love.

5 O'er every foe victorious,

James Montgomery.

I "The whole wide world for Jesus," All creatures great and small, Come ye, bow down before Him, God shall be all in all. Go, Christian men united, Filled with compassion, sing The earth's awakening chorus, Peal forth · "Make Jesus King."

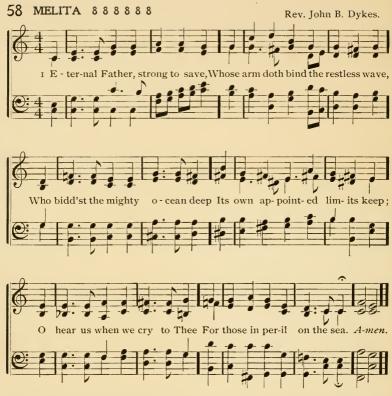

2 "The Gospel of the Kingdom" Go teach, baptize, to-day Let all creation listen Before it pass away.

Those millions groping, longing For peace, for pardon free, Tell them the words of Jesus, Ring out: "Come unto Me."

3 "This generation calleth," Shall Christians not obey Commands of Jesus age-long? His promise stands to-day: All power to Me is given, My banner rests unfurled, Lo, I am with you alway Evangelize the world. Douglas M. Thornton.

2 O Saviour, whose almighty word The winds and waves submissive heard.

Who walkedst on the foaming deep,

And calm amid its rage didst sleep: O hear us when we cry to Thee For those in peril on the sea.

3 O Sacred Spirit, who didst brood Upon the chaos dark and rude, Who badd'st its angry tumult cease,

And gavest light and life and peace:

O hear us when we cry to Thee For those in peril on the sea.

4 O Trinity of love and power, Our brethren shield in danger's hour;

From rock and tempest, fire and foe, Protect them wheresoe'er they go, And ever let there rise to Thee Glad hymns of praise from land and sea,

William Whiting

2 Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress, and their Might; Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight; Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true Light. Alleluia!

- 3 O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold, Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old, And win with them the victor's crown of gold. Alleluia!
- 4 O blest communion, fellowship Divine! We feebly struggle, they in glory shine; Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine. Alleluia!
- 4 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long, Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song, And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong. Alleluia! Bishop William W. How.

William Shrubsole.

2 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget The wormwood and the gall, Go, spread your trophies at His feet, And crown Him Lord of all.

3 Let every kindred, every tribe, On this terrestrial ball, To Him all majesty ascribe, And crown Him Lord of all.

4 O that with yonder sacred throng We at His feet may fall; We'll join the everlasting song, And crown Him Lord of all.

Rev. Edward Perronet.

- 2 Yes; none other name is given Unto mortals under heaven, Which can make the dead arise, And exalt them to the skies.
- 3 That which Christ so hardly wrought,

That which He so dearly bought, That salvation, mortals, say, Will ye madly cast away?

- 4 Rather gladly for that Name
  Bear the cross, endure the shame;
  Joyfully for Him to die,
  Is not death, but victory.
- 5 Jesus, Who dost condescend To be called the sinner's Friend, Hear us as to Thee we pray, Glorying in Thy Name to-day.

64 HE LEADETH ME

I He leadeth me: oh blessèd thought! Oh words with heavenly comfort fraught! Whate'er I do, where'er I be, Still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me.

REFRAIN: He leadeth me, He-leadeth me; By His own hand He leadeth me: His faithful follower I would be, For by His hand He leadeth me.

66 WHAT A FRIEND WE HAVE IN JESUS

I What a friend we have in Jesus, All our sins and griefs to bear! What a privilege to carry Everything to God in prayer! O what peace we often forfeit, O what needless pain we bear, All because we do not carry Everything to God in prayer.

2 Have we trials and temptations? Is there trouble anywhere? We should never be discouraged: Take it to the Lord in prayer! Can we find a friend so faithful, Who will all our sorrows share? Jesus knows our every weakness— Take it to the Lord in prayer.

3 Are we weak and heavy laden, Cumbered with a load of care? Precious Saviour, still our refuge,— Take it to the Lord in prayer. Do thy friends despise, forsake thee? Take it to the Lord in prayer! In His arms He'll take and shield thee, Thou wilt find a solace there. Joseph Scriven.

67 ROCK OF AGES

r Rock of Ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in Thee; Let the water and the blood, From Thy riven side which flowed, Be of sin the double cure, Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

2 Not the labors of my hands Can fulfil Thy law's demands; Could my zeal no respite know, Could my tears for ever flow, All for sin could not atone; Thou must save, and Thou alone. W W Se

3 Nothing in my hand I bring, Simply to Thy cross I cling; Naked, come to Thee for dress; Helpless, look to Thee for grace; Foul, I to the Fountain fly; Wash me, Saviour, or I die. 4 While I draw this fleeting breath, When my eyelids close in death, When I soar to worlds unknown,

See Thee on Thy judgment throne, Rock of Ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in Thee. Rev. Augustus M. Toplady.

68 IN THE CROSS OF CHRIST I GLORY

In the cross of Christ I glory, Towering o'er the wrecks of time; All the light of sacred story Gathers round its head sublime.

2 When the woes of life o'ertake me, Hopes deceive, and fears annoy, Never shall the cross forsake me: Lo! it glows with peace and joy. 3 When the sun of bliss is beaming Light and love upon my way, From the cross the radiance streaming Adds more lustre to the day.

4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure, By the cross are sanctified; Peace is there that knows no measure, Joys that through all time abide. Sir John Bowring.

69 JESUS, LOVER OF MY SOUL

I Jesus, lover of my soul, Let me to Thy bosom fly While the nearer waters roll, While the tempest still is high: Hide me, O my Saviour, hide, Till the storm of life is past; Safe into the haven guide

Oh receive my soul at last. 3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want; More than all in Thee I find: Raise the fallen, cheer the faint Heal the sick, and lead the blind. Just and holy is Thy Name, I am all unrighteousness; False and full of sin I am,

Thou art full of truth and grace.

2 Other refuge have I none: Hangs my helpless soul on Thee; Leave, ah! leave me not alone, Still support and comfort me.
All my trust on Thee is stayed;
All my help from Thee I bring; Cover my defenceless head With the shadow of Thy wing.

4 Plenteous grace with Thee is found,— Grace to cover all my sin;

Let the healing streams abound, Make and keep me pure within; Thou of life the Fountain art, Freely let me take of Thee; Spring Thou up within my heart.

Rise to all eternity. Rev. Charles Wesley.

MORE LOVE TO THEE, O CHRIST

More love to Thee. O Christ, More love to Thee! Hear Thou the prayer I make On bended knee; This is my earnest plea, More love, O Christ, to Thee, More love to Thee!

2 Once earthly joy I craved, Sought peace and rest; Now Thee alone I seek, Give what is best This all my prayer shall be, More love, O Christ, to Thee, More love to Thee!

NEARER, MY GOD, TO THEE

I Nearer, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee! E'en though it be a cross That raiseth me Still all my song shall be, Nearer, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee!

2 Though like the wanderer, The sun gone down, Darkness be over me, My rest a stone

Yet in my dreams I'd be Nearer, my God. to Thee, Nearer to Thee!

3 There let the way appear, Steps unto heaven: All that Thou send'st to me, In mercy given:

Nearer to Thee.

72 MY JESUS, I LOVE THEE

I My Jesus I love Thee, I know Thou art | 3 I will love Thee in life, I will love Thee in mine. For Thee all the follies of sin I resign:

My gracious Redeemer, my Saviour art Thou, If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

2 I love Thee, because Thou hast first loved
